

Burgmann Papers Archive 2015

|                           | Item                                  | Date              | Form  | Details  |
|---------------------------|---------------------------------------|-------------------|---|--|
| Magazines          |                                       |                   |   |  |
|                           | People Volume 3 Issue 4               | April 23, 1952    | Original Entire Magazine. Photocopy of entire Magazine A4. Photocopy of E.H. Burgmann Article A3. | Headline: Bishop Burgmann - A Fearless Protagonist of Unpopular Causes. Biographical information including hobbies and life. Particularly 1930s and                      |
|                           | Church Illustrated Volume 4 Issue 5   | May, 1958         | Original Entire Magazine.   | Detailing the E.H. Burgmann's trip to London for the Lambeth Conference. Cover Photo and p. 2  |
|                           | The Church Imperial                   | May, 1958         | Original Entire Magazine  | Detailing the Lambeth Conference   |
|                           | The Echo: Cleveland Stree High School | 1960              | Booklet   | Headline: Some of Our Old Famous Boys. E.H. Burgmann detailing his experience at the School p.15   |
| Newspaper Articles |                                       |                   |   |  |
|                           | Unknown Source                        | August 1, 1857    | 3 Article Cuttings  | Details Dr Hale assuming Bishopry of Perth. Details of mutiny in the Bengal Army. Photo fo Archdeacon Hale.  |
|                           | Unknown Source                        | 1857              | Article cutting   | Details return of Dr Hale from England following appointment as Bishop of Perth  |
|                           | The Goulburn Herald and Chronicle     | December 6, 1876  | Article cutting   | Headline: Church of England - Novel Proceedings at Queanbeyan. Small meeting concerning right of Church of England members to have a voice in appointing their ministers |
|                           | The Southern Morning Herald           | October 25, 1920  | 1 page article  | Headline: St. Saviour's Parish - Its Growth from nothing. History of the Church of England in Goulburn   |
|                           | Queanbeyan-Canberra Advocate          | October 25, 1923  | Article cutting   | Headline: Apostolic Delegate Visits Canberra. Visit of Archbishop Cattaneo to Canberra   |
|                           | Goulburn Evening Penny Post           | December 18, 1935 | Article cutting   | Headline: St Saviour's. History of cathedral from 1842   |
|                           | Goulburn Evening Penny Post           | December 18, 1935 | 2 page article  | Headline: Goulburn and the Post from 1870-1935. Image of St Saviour's Cathedral, Goldsmith Street Methodist Church, St Andrew's Presbyterian Church.                     |
|                           | Goulburn Evening Penny Post           | March 24, 1938    | Article cutting   | Headline: Taralga Has Many Activities. Churches and respective activities in the Taralga and Chatsbury area  |

|                    |                             |                  |                                    |   |
|--------------------|-----------------------------|------------------|------------------------------------|---|
|                    | Goulburn Evening Penny Post | October 23, 1939 | Article cutting                    | Headline: Memories of Past Days.History of the Goulburn Diocese   |
|                    | Goulburn Evening Penny Post | October 23, 1939 | Article cutting                    | Headline: Late Canon Hirst.Memorial service held by E.H. Burgmannfor the late Canon Hirst   |
|                    | The Anglican                | March 1, 1957    | Entire Newspaper                   | Headline: Primate Opens S. Mark'sMemorial Library.E.H. Burgmann's opening of St Mark'sMemorial Library  |
|                    | The Shepherd                | February, 1961   | Article cutting                    | Headline: Pastoral Shepherd Moves on toFresh Pastures. E.H. Burgmann'sretirement and a reflection of his bishopry   |
|                    | The Canberra Times          | April 29, 1965   | Article cutting                    | Headline: Bishop Suggests Headquartersat Reid. Recommendation by BishopClements for a Anglican diocesanHeadquarters                                       |
|                    | The Canberra Times          | May 1, 1965      | Article cutting                    | Headline: Anglican Library AlterationsFinished.Alterations completed on the St Mark'sAnglican Memorial Library  |
|                    | The Canberra Times          | October 22, 1965 | Article cutting                    | Headline: Australia and Racialism.Summary of lunchtime address deliveredby Dr W.E.H. Stanner at St Mark'sMemorial Library                                 |
|                    | The Canberra Times          | October 23, 1965 | Article cutting                    | Headline: Racialism Here Has ShallowRoots.Dr W.E.H. Stanner delivered a lunchtimeaddress at St Mark's Memorial Library                                    |
|                    | The Canberra Times          | November 4, 1966 | Article cutting                    | Headline: Education Need to ImproveMental Services.Professor Moran delivered lecture at StMark's Memorial Library   |
|                    | The Canberra Times          | October 21, 1967 | Article cutting                    | Headline: Councillors Named Naming ofcouncillors of St Mark's Institute ofTheology. Notification of MemorialAddress to be given for late E.H.Burgmann |
|                    | The Canberra Times          | February 2, 1970 | Photo and accompanying description | Dr Nurser, Warden of St Mark's MemorialLibrary, receives guests at a reception ofvisiting Prof. Evans   |
|                    | Unknown Source              | Unknown          | Article cutting                    | Headline: Induction of the Rev.W.C.Pritchard, M.A.Details installation of the Canon elect andhis first sermon   |
| Photographs |                             |                  |                                    |   |
|                    | 17th Synod Newcastle        | May, 1912        | Framed photograph                  |   |

|  |   |                       |                         |  |
|--|---|-----------------------|-------------------------|--|
|  | Gosford Church of England   | C1913                 | Developed photograph    | Back row from left to right: Eric Gribble, Roy Ranyard, Mr Cochrane, E.H. Burgmann, Mr Barrett, Cecil MacPhersonFront row from left to right: Edward Crowhurst, Alan Macpherson, Ernest Gribble, Rev. Gribble (rector), Fred Gell, Arthur Harris, Horace Ranyard |
|  | St John's College Armidale  | 1918                  | Framed photograph       | E.H. Burgmann seated left  |
|  | St John's College Armidale  | 1919                  | Framed photograph       | E.H. Burgmann centre seated  |
|  | St John's College Armidale  | 1919/1920             | Framed photograph       | E.H. Burgmann centre seated right  |
|  | St John's College Armidale  | 1923                  | Framed photograph       | E.H. Burgmann centre seated  |
|  | St John's College Armidale  | 1924                  | Framed photograph       | E.H. Burgmann centre seated  |
|  | St John's College Morpeth   | 1926                  | Developed photograph    | Bishop Long at opening of the college  |
|  | St John's College Morpeth   | 1926                  | Negative                | Opening of college procession. E.H. Burgmann 5th from right  |
|  | St John's College Morpeth   | 1927                  | Framed photograph       | E.H. Burgmann centre seated?   |
|  | Chapel in Monpeth House   | C1930                 | Developed photograph    | Obtained from Catherine Lee in 1985  |
|  | Chapel in Monpeth House   | C1931                 | Negative                | Obtained from Catherine Lee in 1986  |
|  | Maitland Clerical Society   | 1934                  | A3 developed photograph | E.H. Burgmann seated second row centre   |
|  | Consecration  | 1934                  | Developed photograph    | E.H. Burgmann pictured outside in vestments  |
|  | Bishops of the province of NSW soon after the consecration of E.H. Burgmann | 1934                  | 2 developed photographs | Back row from left to right: Bp. Moyes, Bp. Crotty, Bp. Kirkby.Front row from left to right: Bp. Ashton, Bp. Burgmann, Archbp. Mowll, Bp. Batty, Bp. Halse.  |
|  | 75th anniversary of Lake Bathurst Parish Church                             | November 30, 1935     | Developed photograph    | pictures Lake Bathurst Parish Church and small surroundings  |
|  | ABM conference  | 1937                  | Framed photograph       | Hornsby. E.H. Burgmann second row, second from left  |
|  | "Four hundred years of the English bible"                                   | 1938                  | Framed photograph       | Audience and stage pictured  |
|  | Goulburn Synod  | September 26-27, 1939 | Framed photograph       | Centre front: Sir R. GarranCentre front right: E.H. Burgmann   |
|  | V.P. Day Canberra   | August 16, 1945       | Developed photograph    | Left to right - unknown, Rev. Harrison, Archbishop Robertson, Bishop Burgmann  |
|  | Clergy Conference Retreat   | July 7-10, 1947       | Developed photograph    | Grafton NSW  |
|  | Australian Bishops at Lambeth   | 1948                  | Developed photograph    |  |

|  |   |                   |                         |   |
|--|---|-------------------|-------------------------|---|
|  | E.H. Burgmann at Barmedman  | November 10, 1957 | Developed photograph    | At doors wearing new St Mark's Vestments  |
|  | E.H. Burgmann at Barmedman  | November 10, 1957 | Developed photograph    | Confirmation Service  |
|  | E.H. Burgmann feeding pigeons at Lambeth conference                             | 1958              | 2 developed photographs |   |
|  | E.H. Burgmann with Prime Minister of Canada                                     | 1958              | Developed photograph    |   |
|  | Installation of Rt. Rev. Frank Woods as Archbishop of Melbourne                 | 1958              | Developed photograph    | includes from left: Bp. Alan Winter, Bp. Geoffrey Cranswick, Bp. E.H. Burgmann, Bp. A. Garnsey, Bp. Ron Richards  |
|  | 25th Anniversary of consecration  | May, 1959         | Developed photograph    | E.H. Burgmann and Edna  |
|  | St Augustine College  | August, 1958      | Developed photograph    | International Summer Course "Lambeth and Unity", August 11 - August 23  |
|  | E.H. Burgmann and unknown group   | June, 1959        | Developed photograph    | "with fond memories of June 15/16 1959"   |
|  | St Mark's Theological Discussion  | 1959              | Developed photograph    | Back Row from left to right: Rev. P. Daniel, Mr D. Dockrell, Rev. M. Thomas, Rev. P. Rudge, Rev. J. Judge, Rev. P. Bennie. Front Row from left to right: Canon R. Border, Canon I. Church, Rev. C.A. Warren, Bishop Burgmann, Prof. L.C. Webb, Rev. D. Robinsen, Rev. G. Griffith |
|  | Opening of Burgmann House   | 1960              | Developed photograph    | Mayfield Newcastle  |
|  | Appointed Companion of the Most Distinguished Order of St Michael and St George | August 6, 1962    | Developed photograph    | Appointed on June 10, 1961 in recognition of his services to religious, educational and cultural life of the nation. The investiture was held at Government House, Canberra, August 6, 1962   |
|  | After presentation of CMG decoration  | 1962              | Developed photograph    |   |
|  | Burmann   | April 9, 1967     | 3 developed photographs | Portrait with orientation to the left   |
|  | E.H. Burgmann and Dr R. G. Woods of Goulburn                                    | August 17, 1967   | Developed photograph    |   |
|  | Event at St Mark's  | February, 1979    | Developed photograph    |   |
|  | Banner at St Mark's   | February, 1979    | Developed photograph    |   |
|  | Framed banner at St Mark's  | February, 1979    | Developed photograph    |   |
|  | Robert Withycomb  | February, 1979    | 2 developed photographs |   |
|  | Librarian at St Mark's  | February, 1979    | Developed photograph    | Also available in negative form   |
|  | Outside of St Mark's and close scenery  | February, 1979    | 2 developed photographs | Also available in negative form   |
|  | Outside of St Mark's  | February, 1979    | 2 developed photographs | Also available in negative form   |

|  |   |                |                                      |   |
|--|---|----------------|--------------------------------------|---|
|  | Oblique view inside St Mark's not including windows           | February, 1979 | Developed photograph                 |   |
|  | Oblique view inside St Mark's including windows               | February, 1979 | Developed photograph                 |   |
|  | St Mark's   | February, 1979 | 4 strips of negatives                | Some of these negatives are available in developed form   |
|  | E.H. Burgmann and siblings                                    | unknown        | Framed photograph                    | Back row from left to right: Percy, Ernest, Clyde. Front Row from left to right: Laura, Father, Vera  |
|  | Bishop Steven of Newcastle                                    | unknown        | Framed portrait photograph           |   |
|  | E.H. Burgmann and Archbishop of Canterbury                    | unknown        | Developed photograph                 | Archbishop speaking with Mr Williams, High Commissioner for United Kingdom  |
|  | E.H. Burgmann and Rev. Gordon Arthur                          | unknown        | Developed photograph                 |   |
|  | E.H. Burgmann at a diocesan dinner                            | unknown        | Developed photograph                 | E.H. Burgmann speaking at dinner  |
|  | Clergy Group at Armidale College                              | unknown        | Developed photograph                 | St John's College Armidale  |
|  | E.H. Burgmann and unknown group                               | unknown        | Developed photograph                 | E.H. Burgmann middle row, third from right  |
|  | E.H. Burgmann in UK   | unknown        | 2 developed photographs              | possibly London?  |
|  | E.H. Burgmann with unknown                                    | unknown        | Developed photograph                 | possibly Armidale?  |
|  | E.H. Burgmann with Edna                                       | unknown        | 2 developed photographs              |   |
|  | E.H. Burgmann at St Mark's Memorial Library                   | unknown        | Developed photograph                 | E.H. Burgmann with world globe. Obtained from Sun Feature Bureau Sydney   |
|  | E.H. Burgmann at St Mark's Memorial Library                   | unknown        | Developed photograph                 | E.H. Burgmann reading at desk. Obtained from Sun Feature Bureau Sydney  |
|  | Site of proposed Anglican Cathedral from Old Parliament House | unknown        | A3 developed photograph              | Cross in distance marks site of proposed Anglican Cathedral. Building on left is the original National Library. Obtained from Mrs E.H. Burgmann |
|  | E.H. Burgmann in Bishop's vestments                           | unknown        | Developed portrait photograph        | pale background, orientated right   |
|  | E.H. Burgmann and Rev. K. Single                              | unknown        | Developed photograph                 | shown standing with new vestments between them  |
|  | E.H. Burgmann in Bishop's vestments                           | unknown        | A3 developed photograph              | Black background, head orientated left  |
|  | E.H. Burgmann in Bishop's vestments                           | unknown        | Small developed portrait photograph  | pale background, orientated right   |
|  | E.H. Burgmann in Bishop's vestments                           | unknown        | Medium developed portrait photograph | pale background, orientated right   |
|  | Central Lansdowne Public School                               | unknown        | Developed photograph with subtitle   |   |

|  |   |         |  |   |
|--|---|---------|--|---|
|  | Soldier?  | unknown | Developed photograph                         |   |
|  | painting of E.H. Burgmann                             | unknown | Developed photograph of painting with border | Portrait painted by Judy Cassab 1957  |
|  | painting of E.H. Burgmann                             | unknown | Small developed photograph of painting       | Portrait painted by Judy Cassab 1958  |
|  | painting of E.H. Burgmann                             | unknown | Large developed photograph of painting       | Portrait painted by Judy Cassab 1959  |
|  | painting of E.H. Burgmann                             | unknown | Small black and white photograph of painting | Portrait painted by Judy Cassab 1960  |
|  | E.H. Burgmann and family?                             | unknown | Developed photograph                         |   |
|  | unknown   | unknown | 6 negatives                                  | obtained from John M. Freund (University of Newcastle)  |
|  | possibly E.H. Burgmann                                | unknown | 2 negatives                                  |   |
|  | E.H. Burgmann and group                               | unknown | Developed photograph                         | E.H. Burgmann third from the left   |
|  | E.H. Burgmann dresses for ASCM Joke                   | unknown | Developed photograph                         |   |
|  | Cottage Aidain's Lodge                                | unknown | Developed photograph                         | Cottage with tree in foreground. Obtained from Catherine Lee in 1985.                             |
|  | Cottage Aidain's Lodge                                | unknown | Negative                                     | Cottage with tree in foreground. Obtained from Catherine Lee in 1985.                             |
|  |   |         |  |   |
|  | Children  | unknown | Negative                                     | Obtained from Catherine Lee in 1987. Possibly Alan, Dorothy and Betty Burgmann?                   |
|  | E.H. Burgmann ordaining deacon?                       | unknown | Developed photograph                         |   |
|  | Group outside St Mark's                               | unknown | Developed photograph                         |   |
|  | E.H. Burgmann in vestments                            | unknown | Developed photograph                         | Small photograph with slight body orientation to the right  |
|  | E.H. Burgmann in Bishop's vestments                   | unknown | Developed photograph                         | Full length portrait, Goulburn  |
|  | Group studying at St Mark's                           | unknown | Developed photograph                         | Pictured - Dr Gordon Griffith, Frank Woodwell, Fred Hart, Rev. Dr. Ray Blakely, Rev. Dr. Kenisley |
|  | Group studying near the alter                         | unknown | Developed photograph                         | Pictured - Dr Gordon Griffith, Frank Woodwell, Fred Hart, Rev. Dr. Ray Blakely, Rev. Dr. Kenisley |
|  | Group of bishops in vestments                         | unknown | Developed photograph                         | 4th from left - Archbishop Woods6th from left - Bishop Burgmann                               |
|  | E.H. Burgmann in Bishop's vestments                   | unknown | Developed photograph                         | Outside and portrait photo orientated right   |
|  | Old bishopethorpe                                     | unknown | Developed photograph                         | Goulburn  |
|  | Blessing of Canberra Grammar School                   | unknown | Framed photograph                            | Canon Doud?, Rev. Gardner, Bp. Burgmann, Canon Edwards  |
|  | Rosemary Morall models E.H. Burgmann's St Mark's cope | unknown | Developed photograph                         | Rosemary Morall (Library Assistant) front view of vestments                                       |

|                                   |  |                             |  |  |
|-----------------------------------|--|-----------------------------|--|--|
|                                   | Rosemary Morall models E.H. Burgmann's St Mark's cope  | unknown                     | 2 developed photographs                        | Rosemary Morall (Library Assistant) back view of vestments and of diocese emblem   |
| Letters and Correspondence |  |                             |  |  |
|                                   | To E.H. Burgmann from Jack Bean  | July 7, 1945                | Hand written, 3 pages                          | Grand Hotel, Harden, NSW. Discusses need for spirit of unity and diversity within the movement "together differently", possible improvements to the charter.                                 |
|                                   | To E.H. Burgmann from Jack Bean  | July 11, 1945               | Hand written, 1 page                           | Grand Hotel, Harden, NSW. "Very many thanks for the books". Discussion of the Liberal Trend within the Anglican Movement and the need for a cooperative outlook                              |
|                                   | To E.H. Burgmann from Jack Bean  | October 17, 1945            | Hand written, 3 pages                          | Globe Hotel, Coote. Listing of corrections for a possible reprint of "The Beginning and the End" and also for "The Charter"  |
|                                   | To E.H. Burgmann from Royal Military College ACT   | July 28, 1948               | Typed, 2 pages                                 | Detailing the requested research pertaining to James Ainslie and Mt Ainslie  |
|                                   | To Peter Hempenstall from John Clarke concerning E.H. Burgmann   | August 4, 1994              | Hand written, 25 pages                         | Information about E.H. Burgmann and responses to areas of Peter's biography  |
|                                   | To Peter Hempenstall from Peter Jensen (Principal of Moore Theological College) concerning E.H. Burgmann | January 30, 1995            | Hand written, 3 pages                          | Praise for the biography and suggestions for minor amendments  |
|                                   | To Peter Hempenstall from Dorothy concerning E.H. Burgmann   | unknown                     | Hand written, 1 page                           | Highlights anticipation for the biography and desire for a printed explanation for the title "The Meddlesome Priest" which had been used out of context in a Sydney Morning Herald Editorial |
|                                   | To Peter Hempenstall from Alan (ANU)   | July 29, 1993               | Typed, 2 pages                                 | Praise and thanks for the biography. Some details about E.H. Burgmann and his relations with Menzies   |
|                                   | To Archbishop Hollingworth from Peter Hempenstall  | July 14, 1992               | Typed, 1 page                                  | Expressing desire for the Archbishop to write a foreword for the E.H. Burgmann biography   |
|                                   | To Mike Steketee (Sydney Morning Herald) from Peter Hempenstall concerning John Burton                   | March 25, 1991              | Typed, 1 page and accompanying article cutting | Expression of desire to meet with Burton due to his contact with E.H. Burgmann   |
|                                   | Collection of letter between Peter Hempenstall and Dr R. Brunswick                                       | September to December, 1989 | Typed and hand written, 4 pages                | Concerning E.H. Burgmann biography   |
|                                   | To Peter Hempenstall from Wayne Hooper   | October 11, unknown year    | Hand written, 1 page                           | Concerning Address on E.H. Burgmann  |

|                       |   |                    |                                 |  |
|-----------------------|---|--------------------|---------------------------------|--|
|                       | To Peter Hempenstall from Ross Saunders                     | September 29, 1989 | Typed, 1 page                   | Opinions of E.H. Burgmann and expression of praise in the writing of the biography   |
|                       | To Peter Hempenstall from Marie Arthur                      | July 20, 1992      | Hand written, 1 page            | News of Gordon's passing and permission to use excerpts from interview with E.H. Burgmann  |
|                       | To Peter Hempenstall from Gordon Arthur                     | January 14, 1991   | Handwritten, 1 page             | Opinions of E.H. Burgmann, words of caution for the use of "meddlesome" in the title   |
|                       | Collection of letters between Peter Hempenstall and Dorothy | 1991-1992          | Typed and Handwritten, 15 pages |  |
|                       | To Peter Hempenstall from Bill Thow                         | November, 1991     | Handwritten, 3 pages            | Details of the biography   |
|                       | To Peter Hempenstall from Claire and Gordon Laws            | December, 1991     | Typed, 1 page                   | Details of biography and of E.H. Burgmann's death  |
|                       | To Brian Norris (Registrar) from Peter Hempenstall          | unknown            | Typed, 1 page                   | Sources for Peter's research of E.H. Burgmann  |
|                       | Letter to Peter Hempenstall                                 | unknown            | Handwritten, 5 pages            | details about E.H. Burgmann  |
|                       | Assorted Letters to and from Peter Hempenstall              | various            | Yellow folder                   | Primarily concerning the production of E.H. Burgmann's biography   |
|                       |   |                    |                                 |  |
| Files          |   |                    |                                 |  |
|                       | Bishop E.H. Burgmann Memorabilia                            |                    | White File                      |  |
|                       |   |                    |                                 |  |
| Burgmann Boxes |   |                    |                                 |  |
|                       | Box 1   |                    |                                 | Biography, tributes, memorials - Accompanying blue finders aid available   |
|                       | Box 2   |                    |                                 | Biography, tributes, memorials - Accompanying blue finders aid available   |
|                       | Box 3   |                    |                                 | Studies in Religion and Life, EJ Davidson Memorial, Morpeth Booklets, The Christian and the War, Australian Student Christian Movement, Moorhouse Lectures - Accompanying blue finders aid available |
|                       | Box 4   |                    |                                 | Young Anglican Movement, Biblical Studies, Church Organisation - Accompanying blue finders aid available   |
|                       | Box 5   |                    |                                 | Synod Addresses, Pastoral Letters, Addresses - Accompanying blue finders aid available   |
|                       | Box 6   |                    |                                 | Social Justice, Church/state issues - Accompanying blue finders aid available  |

|                           |   |                        |                                     |  |
|---------------------------|---|------------------------|-------------------------------------|--|
| Archival Tapes     |   |                        |                                     |  |
|                           | Talk by Burgie  |                        | Tape reel                           | Note "also on Cassette"  |
|                           | Bishop Burgmann   | various                | Magnetophonband red cover tape reel | ABC interview, Sermon on Queen's visit, TV interview prior to retirement. Accompanying letter detailing recordings |
|                           | E.H. Burgmann tape  | various                | Philips red cover tape reel         | ABC program - life and work of Bp Burgmann, commemoration address "Bp Burgmann - a great Australian"               |
|                           | E.H. Burgmann recording   | May 2, 1965            | RCA sound tape                      | recording of E.H. Burgmann   |
| Slides             |   |                        |                                     |  |
|                           | St Mark's Library New Wing  | 1965                   | Agfacolor box                       |  |
|                           | Selection of slides   | unknown                | clear box                           | E.H. Burgmann featured in some   |
|                           | Opening of St Mark's College                                      | 1957                   | Yellow boxes with accompanying note |  |
|                           | Opening and dedication service of St Mark's                       | 1957                   | blue and orange box                 |  |
|                           | Old Lantern Slides of Papua Missions                              |                        | large brown box                     |  |
|                           | Old Lantern Slides of Papua Missions                              |                        | Small brown box                     | found in St Paul's rectory   |
| Books and booklets |   |                        |                                     |  |
|                           | The Education of An Australian by E.H. Burgmann                   | 1944 (first published) | 4 copies                            |  |
|                           | William Ainslie Memorial Lecture delivered by E.H. Burgmann       | 1948                   | 5 copies                            | "The Church's Encounter with Civilisation"   |
|                           | The People of God by E.H. Burgmann                                | 1935                   | 6 copies                            | "A Study on the Church: Its Origin and Destiny"  |
|                           | The Christian Revolution by E.H. Burgmann                         | 1959                   | 16 copies                           |  |
|                           | What is the Gospel? By E.H. Burgmann                              | 1940                   | 14 copies                           |  |
|                           | The Beginning and the End of Things by E.H. Burgmann              | 1939                   | 8 copies                            |  |
|                           | Anglican Belief and Practice by E.H. Burgmann                     | 1952                   | 6 copies                            |  |
|                           | Factors in the Making of the Christian Religion by E.H. Burgmann  | 1929                   | 2 copies                            |  |
|                           | Religion in the Life of the Nation by E.H. Burgmann               | 1930                   | 2 copies                            |  |
|                           | The Coronation of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II by E.H. Burgmann | 1953                   | 5 copies                            | Notes on the service   |
|                           | The Faith of an Anglican by E.H. Burgmann                         | 1943                   | 1 copy                              |  |

|                      |  |                   |                                    |  |
|----------------------|--|-------------------|------------------------------------|--|
|                      | Gambling: Its Nature and Effects by D.A. Garnsey   | 1939              | 1 copy                             |  |
|                      | The Charter of the Young Anglican Movement by E.H. Burgmann  | 1938              | 3 copies                           |  |
|                      | Jesus and God by E.H. Burgmann   | 1930              | 1 copy                             |  |
|                      | Providence and Judgement by E.H. Burgmann  | 1941              | 1 copy                             |  |
|                      | Into All the World by D.A. Garnsey   | 1940              | 3 copies                           |  |
|                      | Whither Australia? By E.H. Burgmann  | 1932              | 1 copy                             |  |
|                      | The Regeneration of Civilisation by E.H. Burgmann  | 1942              |                                    |  |
|                      | Debate on Indochina compiled by D.W.A Baker  |                   | 1 copy                             | Includes views of E.H. Burgmann  |
|                      | Justice For All and the Case for the Unemployed by E.H. Burgmann   | 1933              | 3 copies                           |  |
|                      | The Opportunity for the Church of England  | 1932/33           | 6 copies                           |  |
|                      | Selection of excerpts from E.H. Burgmann's writings  | various           | selection of papers                | Includes New Years Day Hymn, Unemployment and, God and the World of Nature |
|                      |  |                   |                                    |  |
| Miscellaneous | Ordinance  | unknown           | Typed, 1 page                      | details of the purchase and holding of Bishopthorpe                        |
|                      | Program for the opening and dedication of St Mark's  | February 24, 1957 | Booklet                            | Address, prayers, hymns  |
|                      | The Anglican Site in Canberra: An Historical Note  | unknown           | 1 page article                     | Details establishment of the Committee and St Mark's                       |
|                      | Collection of pasted newspaper articles  | unknown           | small booklet                      | letters to the editor from various Herald issues                           |
|                      | Cover page   | 1889              | 1 page                             | Australian emblem and border including Queen Victoria                      |
|                      | Photo and letter from Betty Jeffrey  | February 16, 1978 | Handwritten, 1 page and photograph |  |
|                      | Invitation for E.H. Burgmann to a Luncheon in honour of Most Reverend Hugh Gough, Mrs Gough and Miss Gough | May 30, 1959      | 1 page invitation                  |  |
|                      | Collection of various scraps   | various           | Yellow envelope                    | Includes Bishop of Riverina's News-letter and Fellowship of prayer         |
|                      | picture of the St Mark's Emblem  | unknown           | large card, hand drawn             |  |
|                      | Collection of E.H. Burgmann research and papers  | unknown           | Maroon folder                      | Has accompanying supplementary cards inside                                |